COMMITTEES

Councils and Committees are a great way to introduce yourself to a new group of people and become established in the HBA with our other members.

Home & Remodeling Show

Coordinates the Home & Remodeling Show, which is a trade show for consumers to come and find help in their home needs. They may be looking for new build, remodeling, or anything in-between! All aspects of the show, from preliminary aspects like marketing and planning to the guest and vendor experience during the show itself, are planned by this committee.

HomeShowExpo

Coordinates the HomeShowExpo, the Des Moines metro area's largest and best annual exhibition of new home construction. Also organizes Member Night, award voting, and any additional events within the show.

Tour of Remodeled Homes

Coordinates the Tour of Remodeled Homes, which showcases the best examples of remodeling in the area for consumers and members alike. Membership in the Remodelers Council is required to participate in this committee.

Membership

Coordinates membership retention and development of membership related materials and information. Works to strengthen engagement from members.

Governmental Affairs

Monitors legislative and governmental activities at all levels and makes recommendations for grassroots action. Encourages Political Action Committee (PAC) involvement.

Engagement

Develops educational programs and classes for the entire membership and for non-members as well as social events. Plans social and networking events including holiday party, Networking After Hours, spring & fall golf tournaments, and others as needed.

Workforce Development

Our workforce development committee focuses on building awareness and skills of the next generation of our workforce. Some of our areas of interest are student home build programs, HBA student chapters, summer camps, residential home building pre-apprenticeship programs, career fairs, school speaking opportunities, and internship and mentorship opportunities.

HBA CARES

Established in 2022, HBA Cares is a compassionate group of construction professionals who are improving our community by building up individuals, families and organizations with housing needs in Central Iowa.

HOME & REMODELING show

About: This is the perfect show to get your name out in front of the consumers! Choose your booth size and join us for the three day event.

Projected Attendance: 3,000

What our Members say: There is a higher percentage of people that come to this show actually looking to do remodeling, new construction and home improvement projects than other area trade shows.

HOMESHOWEXPO

About: View new construction single family homes for three long weekends! Many members are featured in each home and you can even have a booth to target consumers that come to the show.

Projected Attendance: 10,000

What our Members say: You have a mix of people that come to just see the new trends to bring back to their current home as well as those looking to see which builder they want to build their next home with.

TOUR of REMODELED HOMES

About: View remodeled homes around the metro! Not only do you get a chance to talk to the remodelers in-person, you get to see the quality of work they do first-hand.

Projected Attendance: 500

What our Members say: Being able to get in front of an audience looking to remodel and show them our work in-person is the best way to gain a new customer!
